

Phil Ellis joins Suite LLC for expansion in US and Europe

New York, NY: Phil Ellis has joined Suite LLC, the analytics software and valuation service provider to help the firm expand its reach and enter new markets. Gerard Galluscio, Managing Partner at Suite LLC commented, "Suite has a firmly-established place in some of the largest banks and hedge funds. This gives us a strong base from which to grow the business". Phil Ellis said "Suite's strengths are its cost-effective valuation services, its robust and well-engineered software libraries, and its high quality documentation and support. In addition to our existing base, we are now marketing to regional banks, software companies, and the growing valuation services business".

Prior to Suite, Phil Ellis led the renewal and growth of Sybase Europe's services business, and was Director of European Cross Business Technology and Operations at Deutsche Bank. He is based in Austin, Texas and New York, New York.

Suite LLC (www.suitellc.com) has a market-leading range of analytics and pricing tools, and provides a range of valuation and professional services from New York, NY and Austin, Texas.
